Happy College Radio Day!

Mark the occasion by donating to KFJC and we will reward you

Hello KFJC Friends,

Today is College Radio Day, an annual event in which student-focused radio stations all over the world are celebrating our special slice of the airwaves. Based at Foothill College, KFJC has been championing college radio since we were launched by our industrious student founder, Bob Ballou in October, 1959. Later this month, KFJC marks our 61st anniversary. As we reflect back on decades of innovative programming, we also ask for your support during our fundraiser. Less than a week after the 2020 KFJC Fundraiser began during "The Norman Bates Memorial Soundtrack Show," we are so gratified by your generous donations so far. Thank you!

It was such a thrill to watch KFJC's Station Supervisor Doc Pelzel getting inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame (BARHOF) last weekend. Doc and KFJC's General Manager Eric Johnson pre-recorded their portion of the festivities (watch video here) at California Historical Radio Society's headquarters in Alameda. Congratulations to Doc for not only this impressive achievement, but also for his 40 years at KFJC.

Seeking Your Help for Cy Thoth Special

KFJC has been posting archived sets of the Firebunker in chronological order every Thursday since 2013 when Phil Herz passed from this world bringing with him his dreaded and most endeared persona, Cy Thoth. For seven years he ruled Thursday afternoons from 2 PM to 6 PM and on October 29th he will reign once more during a special we are planning to unleash of our, and your, most cherished reflections, immersions, subversions, implosions, superimpositions, and perhaps a few surprises for your exegesis and edification. If you have a beloved Firebunker moment that you'd like to share or hear again, have recordings that you'd like to submit or something you'd like us to find in our sprawling audio reliquary drop us an email at: cythoth@kfjc.org and stay tuned to your source...#firebunker2020

Dave Emory Archive Flash drive

Relying on documentary sources, rigorously excerpted and annotated, political researcher Dave Emory has made his work available to the public without financial compensation.

KFJC is proud to make Dave's entire audio oeuvre available on a USB Flash Drive now offered as a premium to listeners who contribute $65.00 or more to KFJC.

In addition to over a thousand "For The Record Shows," the AFA Archive Shows (formerly "RFA"), the Miscellaneous Archive Shows, the Guns of November Archive Shows, and numerous lectures, the flash drive features all of the descriptions for these audio files-a massive, invaluable resource in, and of, themselves.

The drive also contains many hours of videotaped lectures, including a massive series of lectures given in October of 2006 called "The First Refuge of a Scoundrel: the Relationship between Religion and Fascism," as well as a lecture given in the summer of 2008 about the background of Barack Obama.

By contributing to KFJC and securing a copy of an entire lifetime of essential research for yourself, you will be furthering the cause of human understanding, as well as supporting KFJC-FM, the invaluable media resource that brings you this material!

You will also be able to deduct your contribution from your income taxes. Mr. Emory would be proud.
